

WANTED: MORE REPUBLICANS

SUGGESTIONS RAISED UPON BIG CHIEF PATTERSON

Some are that He Should Give Place to a Younger or a Better Man. A Colored Brother Wants to be More "Together" With Dr. Dewey, Eliza Root, and the Rest.

Embodied by a reception which the few Republicans who offered suggestions for the betterment of the Republican organization in this city got on Wednesday night, a score of reformers with ideas attended the second meeting of the Republican County Executive Committee in the Grand Opera House building last night. The number of attendants, too, was larger, well-precipitated the holding of the meeting in the big hall.

Chairman Patterson was not obliged to labor to move the spirit of reform. He had hardly stated the object of the meeting when a A. A. Fair, of the County Executive Committee, pointed to his feet and called for an amendment to the constitution of the County Committee, which will secure representation by election districts, with the Republicans of each district naming their own captain, inspector of election, poll clerk, and ballot clerk.

William M. Hill, of the Eighth, favored a County Committee composed of one delegate from every election district, those delegates to be the election district captains and to pay annual dues of $10.

Prof. George W. Clark of the Twenty-third, he said, carefully presented a statement in which he said that he had been elected as Chairman of the County Committee by the Republicans of the County. He said that he had been elected as Chairman of the County Committee by the Republicans of the County.

"You have no right to say that these men will not accept the leadership until they decline your invitation to lead," said the Professor. "I believe, if invited, they would be glad to rescue this noble city from Democratic misrule. With them at the head there would be no minority at all. They would establish permanent headquarters for the organization."

J. V. B. Voulter of the Twenty-eighth, asked if Dr. Dewey and the other gentlemen enumerated were not members of the County Committee, and on being informed that they were, said:

"Then if they see fit they can come forward and offer their services. We don't see them here."

James M. Gaffney of the Twentieth said that the poor were against the party of high license, which meant high-tension saloons.

Executive Committee of the Twenty-seventh suggested that the Republican County Committee should have a platform regarding the liquor traffic, that Mr. Gaffney insisted that it could make a declaration on the subject in the interest of the poor man's beer.

James B. Townsend of the Eleventh said that the poor men should be content to act from an altruistic charity.

One of the Twenty-ninth sent up a manuscript to be read by Secretary Bellamy.

He proposed a complete reinvestment of all Republican funds in the County Committee. Two-thirds of the fund should be given to the County Committee and one-third to the local organizations. He suggested the payment of a liberal salary to the Chairman of the County Committee, and that the County Committee should have the right to discipline district leaders.

The proposed salary of the Chairman was $100 a month. The Chairman of the County Committee, who he proposed, shall have unequalled power to discipline district leaders.

Tacitly, "no way to get votes. What we want is to get votes. What we want is to get votes. What we want is to get votes."

Assistant Attorney General William H. Hill, of the Twelfth, said that the colored man should be content to act from an altruistic charity.

THURSTON NOT YET ELECTED.

Unless Chosen Today, It Is Thought He Won't Be Senator.

Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 3.—John M. Thurston has two accounts to settle as Senator A. R. Paddock. He attributes the action of the Union Pacific management in ordering his withdrawal from the Senatorial race to the direct influence of Paddock, through his cousin, who is a Government director of the Union Pacific Railroad, and who holds the dock responsible for the fact that he was not elected United States Senator to-day. The Republicans have been straining every nerve since Thurston secured the caucus nomination to obtain the necessary five votes from the Democratic Populists, and when the House and Senate went into joint convention to-day the leaders were confident that Thurston would be elected. Promises had been obtained from five Democratic Populists to call for their votes on the fourth ballot. The House and Senate went into joint convention to-day the leaders were confident that Thurston would be elected. Promises had been obtained from five Democratic Populists to call for their votes on the fourth ballot.

One ballot was taken. The sixty-one Republicans voted for Thurston, and fifty-one Democrats for Paddock. The result was a tie. The House and Senate went into joint convention to-day the leaders were confident that Thurston would be elected. Promises had been obtained from five Democratic Populists to call for their votes on the fourth ballot.

TALKED SILVER LAW REPEAL

SENATOR CARLISLE SPENT THE DAY WITH MR. CLEVELAND.

The President Elect Anxious to Have the Sherman Law Put Out of the Way Before He Goes to Washington—18 or 20 Democratic Votes He Needs on the Senate.

Yesterday was John Griffin Carlisle's last day as a United States Senator. He spent the day in New York with Mr. Cleveland. The conference between Mr. Cleveland and his new Secretary of the Treasury was joined by Henry Villard, Josiah Quincy, the national Committee man from Massachusetts, Dr. M. Dickinson and Col. Daniel Scott Leonard.

The silver question was the uppermost subject discussed. Mr. Carlisle assured Mr. Cleveland that Kentucky's new Senator, William Lindsay, a big, broad-shouldered man, who looks like the late Phillips Brooks, was nearly as good as a Republican. He would like to have the Sherman law repealed before he goes to Washington.

Mr. Dickinson, as his special messenger, has conveyed his wishes to the legislators at Washington, and that he will come on to Washington to see Mr. Cleveland. Mr. Carlisle felt on the question. Mr. Carlisle has known from the first Mr. Cleveland's wishes, but there is a prospective fight in the House of Representatives and in the Senate.

Mr. Carlisle discussed yesterday the methods by which the repeal of the Sherman law could be attained.

It was ascertained that the fight against the Sherman law would be precipitated next week. Senator Carlisle assured Mr. Cleveland that he could rely upon the support of Senator Gray of Delaware, Senator Hill of New York, Senator Brice of Ohio, Senators Caffery and White of Louisiana, Senator Vilas of Wisconsin, Senator Vest of Missouri, Senator Lindsay of Kentucky, Senators Gorman and McPherson of Maryland, and Senator Camden of West Virginia. If things go hard the new Secretary of the Treasury believes that he could rely upon Senator Hutton of Virginia and Senator Ransom of North Carolina.

It was said that there was a possibility of passing the repeal bill in the House of Representatives. Mr. Carlisle said that he would like to see the repeal bill passed in the House of Representatives.

Policeman Kennedy was a clerk before he was made a member of the force on May 2, 1872. He was detailed to the prison ward in the House of Correction, where he remained until his death on Wednesday. He was taken sick a week ago yesterday.

These new cases were reported: Lane, George, 34, homeless; removed from the city; died on Wednesday. Harris, Charles, 40, taken to Chambers Street Hospital on Wednesday. Kennedy, Patrick, 40, taken to Chambers Street Hospital on Wednesday.

FARRON DAVIES WON'T REAGRE.

His Prayer Meeting for Harmony Not a Free Public Trial.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 3.—This afternoon in the little Congregational Church at Green's Farms the prayer meeting called by Pastor Davies to secure harmony in the church was held in the hope of effecting a reconciliation in prayer.

There was disappointment in store for the pastor who had arrived at the church for only about thirty minutes before the meeting was called. He had hoped for a gathering that would fill the church to overflowing and that an outburst of good feeling would follow. The gathering was made up entirely of the followers of the pastor's advanced theological views, only a score or so of the members of the congregation attending the meeting.

Pastor Davies opened the meeting by reading from the Bible. He read the story of the prodigal son. He then turned to the members of the church and said: "I have been thinking of you all very much. I have been thinking of you all very much. I have been thinking of you all very much."

Almost Miraculous

Absolutely Helpless and Hopeless

The Grip, Rheumatism, Debility.

"For several years I have been a very great sufferer with rheumatism. In the winter of '90 and '91, when I had been obliged to use crutches for a long while, in my unfortunate condition I had a severe attack of the grip, which put me down for nearly a year. As I had a severe cough, the doctor thought I was affected, and that there was little or no hope of my recovery."

In the fall I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it found a medicine which was doing me good. From an utterly helpless condition I now have reached a good state of health. I do all my work and walk around without crutches. The pain and swelling caused by the grip, rheumatism, and debility, are all gone. All my friends regard my cure almost miraculous and give the highest praise to Hood's Sarsaparilla."—Mrs. MARY ANDRESS, Crawfordville, Ind.
